CLERK'S OFFICE OPENS IN RANCHO CUCAMONGA & VICTORVILLE ON MAY 28

SAN BERNARDINO, CA—In alignment with the San Bernardino County Superior Court's Strategic Plan, the restoration of Civil services continues with a clerk's office opening in Victorville and Rancho Cucamonga on May 28, 2024.

With the opening of the two clerk's offices, court users from the west end and high desert will no longer need to travel to the San Bernardino Justice Center to file civil documents in person; they can do so closer to where they reside. Until the clerk's offices are established in these two court locations, online submission remains an option using the eFile portal (<https://www.sb-court.org/efiling/civil-efiling>).

The Court is committed to providing equal access to justice to the vast county that we serve, and this is the second phase in accomplishing the restoration of Civil services. In phase one, civil matters with existing court hearings that fell under the jurisdiction of the Rancho Cucamonga and Victorville courthouses were relocated from the San Bernardino Justice Center back to those respective jurisdictions on December 11, 2023.
